confidence and patronage. From the distinguished Professor of Chemistry and Materia Medica, Bowdoin College. Dear Sir: I delayed answering the receipts of your preparation, until I had an opportunity of witnessing its effects in my own family, or in the families of my friends. This I have now done with a high degree of satisfaction, in cases both of adults and children. I have found it, as its ingredients show, a powerful remedy for colds, and coughs, and pulmonary diseases.

From an Overseer in the Hamilton Mills, in this City. Lowell, Aug. 10, 1849.

Yours, respectfully, S. D. EMERSON. Read the following, and see if this medicine is worth a trial. This patient had become very feeble, and the effect of the medicine was unmistakably distinct :-

UNITED STATES HOTEL, SARATOGA SIRINGS, ? July 5, 1849. Dr. J. C. Aver. - Sir: I have been afflicted with a painful affection of the lungs, and all the symptoms of settled consumption, for more than a year. I could find no medicine have been steadily gaining my strength till my health is well nigh restored.

by a severe attack of bronchitis.

I have pleasure in certifying these facts to you, And am, sir, yours respectfully, J. F. CALHOUN, of South Carolina.

CHESTER, PA., Aug. 22, 1846.

J. C. Ayer,—Sir: I was taken with a terrible cough. THE subscriber begs leave to return thanks to his country and town friends for the liberal patronage they have bestowed on him, and hopes by strict attention to business to from any expectation of obtaining relief. Its good effect induced me to continue its use, and I soon found my health much improved. Now in three months, I am well and strong, and can attribute my cure only to your great medicine.

With the deepest gratitude, yours, &c.

Don't Bet. Amasa May was cored of betting! How ! Keep qui-

Not a thousand miles from Jamaica Plain lived Lem Seaver, Bob Emmons and Amasa May. Lem was fond of shooting, could shoot well, and was rather proud of it. It happened on a bright October day that he had been hunting the cover on the Newton side of the pond, and came out by the old barn where Bob Emmons was at work. After a little talk Lem left his gun and fixings standing outside, and went into the barn to look at the cattle, and finally passed through elected stock, which he will sell as low as any Druggist in to the cider mill, which stool just beyond; for a half the Southern country. While he was gone, Bob, who was always at the bottom of all the deviltry done in the vicinity, dropped an extra charge of shot into each bar-Epsom and Glauber Salts; Castor and Sweet Oil; Rhu- rel of the gun, and stood by waiting for fun. Presently Amasa came up the road with a new hat on; the half formed plan that floated in the brain of Bob was instantly completed and put into action, as follows: Sulph. Quinine; Iodine; Iodide Mercury; Iodide Potash;

Hailing Amasa. "Come quick," says he, "let's have some fun with Lem. We'll draw out his shot, and bet he can't hit your hat."

" Capital good idea," replied Amasa. " Lem thinks he can shoot; we'll open his eyes! hey ?" Bob carefully drew out all the shot he had just put in, and put the gun back, where he found it. Just then Lem came back, having sucked cider enough to make himself comfortable and prepared to go "Hallo, Lem," says Amasa, "what are you toting that shooting iron about for?"

"Oh, it's a way I have," replied Lem! "sometimes I get a chance to shoot, and then I most always hat, "Bet you can't hit my hat-six rods," exclaimed For sale cheap, by.

"Done," says Lem "set it up!"

Amasa nut his hat on a nest, and measured the six Amasa put his hat on a post, and measured the six rods, almost bursting with suppressed laughter at the imaginary idea of Lem's looks when he should find that he couldn't hit a hat at six rods; Bob also chuckling at the prospect of the succes of his plan, and Lem, pleased with the idea of winning the bet. He brought the gun up to his face to fire. "Double your bet and give it both barrels," said

"Ave! ave!" replied Lem, and he let drive, right and left, in quick succession. Before the smoke rolled away, Amasa jumped forward, with a shout and a laugh, to show Lem that he couldn't hit a hat in broad daylight. But-where was it? Bits of fur here and there, and a miserable, dilapidated wreck of a hat, that looked as if all the woodcocks in Norfolk county had stuck their bills through it, was the sight to greet his eyes. The sulden and instantaneous change of his countenance told Bob who had lost the wager.

And that was the way Amasa was cured of betting. -Boston Carpet Bag. Arab Hospitality.

We boast a great deal of " Southern hospitality," and not without reason, for in no portion of the Union, and in few countries, we imagine, is hospitality more regarded than at the South, but the Arabs outdo us. A well known Arabian horse-stealer once related as follows, what had befallen him in the desert: "I once, as I was astray in the desert, came to a In offering to the community this justly celebrated remedy tribe of Bedouins.
